TAHE 7'0 EGG DURA-TEC SURFBOARD

The Egg 7'0" is a modern shape featuring a full nose and tail with a moderate rocker profile for excellent paddle take-off, exceptional planing, and even better manoeuvrability.

It's THE perfect board for 110-180lbs/50-82kg surfers wanting to learn and progress easily. But the Egg 7'0 is also a great choice for more experienced surfers looking to ride a wide range of wave sizes and conditions. TAHE's incredible DURA-TEC construction lets you focus on surfing and never worry about ding repair.

A five-fin box set-up allows for experimentation with a wide variety of fin set-ups to find the optimal configuration for your style and wave conditions. A standard FCS M5 thruster set is included. A genuine all-terrain wave board for maximum versatility.

3 fins set included
